This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

"Two relations were published of Roggewein's voyage round the world, one in Dutch, printed at Dort in 1728, in 4to, with the title, 'Twee Jaarige reyze rondom de Wereld;' the other in German. The author of this last was Charles Frederic Behrens, a native of Mecklenburgh, serjeant and commander of marines with Roggewein. 'It is a very poor performance, written with much ignorance, though with the parade of knowledge. It appears to me that Behrens kept no journal, and wrote from memory; but his narrative seems to be faithful in the recital of the things he saw.'—Dalrymple."—RICH.

Bellemarre perished, in 1852, in the shipwreck of the packet "Amazon." I do not know whether his "Capitaine Pillavidas, Paris, De Potter, 1856," 3 vols., 8vo, and his "Le Vicomte de Châteaubrun, Paris, De Potter, 1856," 2 vols., 8vo, and 1861, 12mo, relate to America. His "Nouvelles mexicaines par Gabriel Ferry. Seconde édition revue et augmentée" forms the first Lieferung of the first Series of Van Muyden and Rudolph's "Collection d' auteurs français. Berlin; Janke. 1865. 8vo. He also published in the "Revue des Deux Mondes," between April, 1846, and Aug., 1851, thirteen articles on California, Mexico, etc., some of them extending through several numbers.

"This pamphlet having become very scarce, I had it reprinted in 1821."—G. B. SPOTORNO. Unfortunately, Spotorno does not give any title, and I have only been able to obtain one, conjecturally, from the following sentence of Harrisse (Notes on Columbus, p. 68): "Belloro's essay [in Zach, see below] seems to have been published in a different form, and as early as 1809, since we find a refutation in an anonymous pamphlet (by Giuseppe Nervi): Il Sig. Tommaso Belloro Avv. Savon. Vedi notizie d'atti esistenti nel pubb. arch. de' Notaj. di Savona, concernenti la famiglia di Cristoforo Colombo, stampate a Torino l'anno, 1810. ... 8vo, 14 pp." It is plain that Harrisse has confounded Giambattista and Tommaso Belloro, and apparently, in preparing his MS. for the press, he has mistaken a note found in some pamphlet of Nervi's for the title of the pamphlet. By Belloro's essay he means a long letter in Baron Zach's "Correspondance astronomique, Gênes, 1818, foll., Vol. XIV., by Giam Battista Belloro, expressing doubts whether Christopher Columbus was a Savonese. It is severely criticised by G. B. Spotorno, pp. 298–306 of Tom. IV. of his "Storia letteraria Della Liguria, Genova, 1824–58," 5 vols., 8vo. H. After mentioning a pamphlet on the same subject by Isnardi, Harrisse continues: "Thereupon Giambattista Belloro penned a powerful reply: 'Appendice dell' avvocato Giambattista Belloro alla revista critica sopra la patria di Cristoforo Colombo, contra la riposta di un academico di Cogoletto. Genoa, 1839, 8vo,' which, it is hardly necessary to add, silenced Cogoletto and Isnardi forever." It is difficult, in this whole account, to determine how much is the result of Harrisse's personal examination, and how much rests on the authority of others, or on conjecture.

"Relation curieuse et très-interéssante."—LECLERC. The author accompanied Major Long in his second expedition, who remarks: "An Italian whom we met at Fort St. Anthony, attached himself to the expedition, and accompanied us to Pembina. He has recently published a book which we notice merely on account of the fictions and misrepresentations which it contains." The "Revue encyclopédique," 1826, XXIX. 457, criticised the work severely, and doubted the discovery. The author replied in a "Lettre sur la découverte d'un manuscrit mexicain," which was printed in Tome XXXII of the Revue, and in the English edition of his "Pilgrimage." See, also, N. A. R., XXVII. 89, 90.

"Benzoni was born at Milan about 1519. At the age of twenty-two he left his country to visit the New World, and, after fourteen years of travel, returned and published this work. Its style is inelegant, but it deserves to be perused by those interested in the history of the first establishment of the Europeans in America from other than Spanish sources." — TROVENAL.

It is said that, from this work, Kotzebue obtained the foundation of his famous play of "Pizarro." Priced, by Asher, 20fr.; Tross, 15fr.; Puttick, 1860, 11s. This edition was issued with a new title-page, dated M. D. LXXXI. — the collation being precisely the same. Priced, in Köhler's catalogue, 4 thalers. In Mr. Bartlett's catalogue of Mr. J. C. Brown's library, another edition of this date is described; the only difference seems to be in the collation — this one containing only 15 l., (text) pp. 480, but no index. See Bartlett's Cat., Vol. I., Nos. 182 and 183.

Vol. II. has, in addition to the above title, "Y la publica Don José Rafael Enriquez Trespalacios Beristain, Sobrino del Autor. Officina de D. Alexandro Valdés. 1819.'

"De Souza, is by far the most important work for the literature of New Spain that has ever been composed. It comprises 3687 biographies, and although, like most Spanish works of the kind, singularly uncritical, yet it is a perfect treasure as regards the cultivation of science and literature in Mexico and the adjacent countries. The work is extremely scarce, and appears to be altogether unknown in Europe."—LUDEWIG. See also [Harrisse] Bib. Am. Vet., pp. xx, xxi. BERNARD. Letters to the Right Honorable the Earl of Hillsborough, from Governor Bernard, General Gage and the Honorable His Majesty's Council for the Province of Massachusets-Bay. With an Appendix containing divers Proceedings referred to in the said Letters. Boston, New England: Printed by Edes and Gill, ... 1769. Folio, pp. 83. C., W. + Salem. 1769. 4to. + London: Re-Printed for J. Almon. [n. d.] 8vo, pp. 165.

"These two collections of letters commence in January, 1768, and reach to July, 1769. So that the two contain a complete view of the political contests and dissensions in the colony of Massachusetts Bay during that period. The copies were obtained and sent to Boston by William Bollan, at the time agent for the council of Massachusetts. 'In our opinion, the gentlemen of the council have greatly the advantage over the governor and the general, with respect to the solidity and force of the arguments used by them, and have completely vindicated themselves from the charges brought against them by the officers of the crown, in their letters to Lord Hillsborough.'—M. R.," XLI. pp. 320 and 398.

BERNARD. Select Letters on the Trade and Government of America; and the Principles of Law and Polity, applied to the American Colonies. Written by Governor Bernard, at Boston, In the Years 1763, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8. Now first published: To which are added The Petition of the Assembly of Massachuset's Bay against the Governor, his Answer thereto, and the Order of the King in Council thereon. London: T. Payne. M DCC LXXIV. 8vo, Title, pp. vii, 130. B., H. + The Second Edition. London: T. Payne. 1774. 8vo, Half Title, Title, pp. vii, 130. C. 4925

These letters, published by the Governor himself, throw great light on the affairs of New England at that period. The trial was said to be partial, because the assembly had never been suffered to meet, and consequently could not support the charge, so the Governor was honorably acquitted. See Ann. Reg. 1770. 76; M. R., L. 412; Rich, I. 202.

[BERNARD.] An Elegy to the Infamous Memory of Sr. F—— B——. "Auri cœcus Amore, Vendidit Hic Patriam." [Boston:] Printed in the Year M,DCC,LXIX. 4to, pp. 14. 4926.

BERNARD (John). Recollections of the Stage. By John Bernard, formerly of the Federal Street Theatre, Boston. Boston: Frederick S. Hill. 12mo. 4929

Announced in 1831. The Philadelphia Library Company has a title, "Retrospections of the Stage. By the late John Bernard. London and Boston. 1830. 2 vols.," 12mo.

BERNARD (J. A.) A Geographical Dictionary. In which are Represented The Present and Antient Names of all the Countries, Provinces, Remarkable Cities, Towns, Ports, Seas, Streights, Fountains, Rivers, Mountains, Universities, &c. of the Whole World. London: 1692. Folio, pp. 6, 437. W. 4930

[BERNARD (J. F.)] Ceremonies et coutumes religieuses ... . Amsterdam. 1723–43. 8 tom. in 9 vols., folio. Also: Superstitions anciennes et modernes et préjugés vulgaires ... . Amsterdam: J. F. Bernard. 1733–36. 2 vols., folio. 4931

Nearly all the success of this work is owing to its 266 fine engravings. It is a compilation from the writings of R. Simon, J. Abbadie, Boulainvilliers, etc., and "was edited by J. F. Bernard, the minister Bernard, Bruzen de la Martinière, and others. The first volumes were reprinted in 1735 and 1739, with some additions to the text, but the first edition is preferred, because it contains the early impressions of the engravings. A very fine copy sold, St.-Mauris, 3191 fr. Ordinary copies cost from 200 to 250 fr."—BRUNET. Reprinted with the title:

BERNARD. Histoire générale des cérémonies ... représentées en 243 figures dessinées par B. Picart, avec des explications par les abbés Banier et la Mascrier. Paris. 1741. 7 vols., folio.

A few of the plates and the vignettes were newly engraved at Paris by Duflos and others. Bernard reprinted the new dissertations in this edition as Tome VII, 2e partie of his own, and also added an eighth volume. The Cérémonies reappeared, edited by Poncelin, Paris, Laporte, 1783, 4 vols., folio, to which was added Superstitions orientales, Paris, 1785, folio. Also:

BERNARD. Cérémonies ... . Nouvelle édition ... Corrigée; augumentée. ... Paris: L. Prudhomme. M. DCCC. VIII.–X. 12 vols. in 13 pts., folio. H. 4933

The additions are by Count Henri Grégoire, F. H. S. de l'Aulnaye, and Théophile Mandar. "Finally," says Brunet, "these everlasting engravings again figure in a reimpression of the 'Histoire des religions,' with changes and additions. 'Des mœurs et coutumes religieuses de tous les peuples du monde et de l'idolâtrie. Paris. 1816–1819.'" 6 vols., 4to. 638 Plates. There is also an edition, Amsterdam. 1729. 4 vols., folio. It was translated into English, with the following title:

BERNARD. The Religious Ceremonies and Customs of the Several Nations of the Known World. Represented in above an Hundred Copper-Plates designed by the Famous Picart. BERTELLI E FORLANI, Tavole moderne di Geografia de la maggior parte del Mondo. Roma. 1558–80. Imp. folio, engraved Title, and 71 large Maps. 5000

"This series of maps, of which sets or copies vary considerably in their extent, was the best, most complete, and most correct atlas that had till then appeared. In the number, there are three large special maps of America, North and South, besides three maps of the World, in which America also appears. It is remarkable, as shown in these maps, how far the chorography of the regions now comprised in Canada and the States was developed seventy years after the discovery of America. Even the quite recent researches of Jacques Cartier were already utilized."

"Dans la première partie de cet écrit, l'auteur entreprend de prouver, que Jacques Cartier ne fit pas naufrage sur un rocher, auquel une tradition erronnée a conservé en Canada, le nom de 'La Roche de Jacques Cartier.' Dans la seconde partie, l'auteur conjecture que le Canon de Bronze ainsi trouvé, a dû appartenir à Verrazzani, et que c'est ce dernier qui fit naufrage dans ce même endroit." — FARIBAULT, No. 56.

This edition has 176 maps and plates, by Iodocus Hondius printed on the reverse of the pages. Livre septiesme des tables geographiqves, auqvel est continue L'Ameriqve, &c. ... contains twelve maps and plates relating to America, and a map of the world. The text is in French. The date on the engraved title-page is altered from 1616, and served, probably, for a Latin edition. The "Privilège" is dated 1617. A Latin edition is before me, with different maps, and divided into five books, the last with twelve maps and plates relating to America. The title is lost, but the dedication is dated Leyden, 1600. There was a German edition published in Frankfort in 1612, containing only the first five books. The other editions are: Amst. 1600. 4to. BM. + Amst.: Laurent. 1605. 8vo. + [Ibid.] 1613. Relating the True historical Facts of that whole Affair: Testifyd by many imployed therein; and confirmed by Authorities from the Owners. By William Betagh, Captain of Marines in that Expedition. London: T. Combes, J. Lacy, and J. Clarke. MDCCXXVIII. 8vo, 8 l., pp. 342, (3). Map. H. + London. 1737. 8vo. 5057

The author was captain of marines in Capt. Shelvocke's Voyage. He says "His (Shelvocke's) pretended narrative is entirely a deception, and his whole conduct an indignity to his country." "Betagh tells his own story very differently, and his lively manner gives his narrative much beauty and spirit." — KERR's Collection. This was about the last of the buccaneering expeditions. Included in Pinkerton's Voyages, Vol. XVI., and Harris' Coll., Vol. I.

"The first hot-pressed edition of the Bible printed in America." — O'CALLAGHAN. A beautiful edition, and very well printed. The device on the title is the American eagle below an open Bible; the whole surrounded by a lustre and fifteen stars. Vol. I. contains the Old Testament to the end of Psalms, with a handsome copperplate (Baralet fecit.—Lausen sculp.) Vol. II. contains the rest of the Old Testament, the Apocrypha (in italics, but with no separate title-page) and the New Testament, with a separate title-page; and concludes with the usual Scriptural tables, etc.; and some copies have a list of subscribers (two pages) at the end. The foregoing twenty numbers are believed to include all the American editions of the Bible in English printed before 1800. Further information respecting other American Bibles will be found in O'Callaghan's list of Bibles.

Holy Bible. See (Eliot) John.

Indian versions of parts of the Bible will generally be found under the name of the books, sometimes under the name of the translator, and occasionally under the initiatory word; this irregular arrangement has become necessary, as it was not my intention, at the commencement of this work, to include them. The index will generally indicate the location.

Biblia, | Das ist: | Die Heilige Schrift | Altes und Neues | Testaments, | Nach der Deutschen Uebersetzung | D. Martin Luthers, | Mit jedes Capitels kurtzen Summarien, auch | beygefügten vielen und richtigen Parllelen [sic]; | Nebst einem Anhang | Des dritten und vierten Buchs Esrä und des | dritten Buchs der Maccabäer. Germantown: Gedruckt bey Christoph Saur. 1743. 4to, 2 l., pp. 995, (Das Neue Testament) 277 (including a title-page), (Register) 3, (Kurtzer Begriff, etc.) 4. H. 5191

After Eliot's Indian version, this is the first Bible printed in this country, and it is the first in a European language. It is no part of the design of this work to state the reason; it may, however, be briefly observed, that the Bibles could be produced more cheaply abroad, and that their publication in the Colonies was supposed to be interdicted by the patents to the Royal Printers. The type from which the Bible was printed was imported from Frankfort-on-the-Main. One thousand copies were printed, and bound in wooden boards. The volume is very scarce. See "Hist. Mag.," Nov., 1859; III. 325–328.

D. O'Callaghan infers, from the imprint, that this edition was imported in sheets from Germany.

Biblia, Das ist: Die ganze Göttliche Heilige Schrift ... . Dritte Auflage. Germantown: Christoph Saur. 1776. 4to, 2 l., pp. 992; (New Testament) 277 (including a title), (Register) 3.

Of this edition three thousand copies were printed, but the greater part was used for cartridge paper at the battle of Germantown. Sowe doubting the capacity of the Colonists to secure their independence, removed to Philadelphia when in possession by the British; his estate was confiscated by the Colonists, and his books were sold.

Bibliotheca Americana; or, a Chronological Catalogue of the most Curious and Interesting Books, Pamphlets, State Papers, &c. upon the Subject of North and South America, from the Earliest Period to the Present, in Print and Manuscript; for which Research has been made in the British Musæum, and the most Celebrated Public and Private Libraries, Reviews, Catalogues, &c. With an Introductory Discourse on the Present State of Literature in those Countries. London: Printed for J. Debrett. [etc.] M DCC LXXXIX. 4to, 2 l, pp. 271, Errata, 1 l.

This book, which has been variously ascribed to Dalrymple, Homer, Long, and with more probability, by Homer himself, to Reid, was the fullest English work on the subject up to its date; but its complicated arrangements, errors of date, unintelligible abbreviations, and frequent repetitions mar its utility. Some of the remarks in the introduction are curious, if not true. The errata, if all printed, would fill a dozen pages. See M. R., II. 474; Rich, I. 354.

The imprints of the different volumes vary. Andover, at which it has always been printed, appears on the title-page of all but the first volume. In Vols. VIII.–XIX., the title reads: Bibliotheca Sacra and American Biblical Repository, in XV.–XX., and Biblical Repository; after XX. these words are omitted. Many of the volumes contain valuable articles relating to this country.

There is an almost entirely different version of the song in the number for 1770, from which it is copied by Lossing, in his "Field Book of the Revolution," I. 486, 487, where he also gives a fac-simile of the title-page. It is entitled "The Massachusetts Song of Liberty," and, acccording to Lossing, "is believed to have been written by Mrs. Mercy Warren."

BIOT (Édouard Constant). Mémoire sur la condition de la classe servile au Mexique avant la conquête des Espagnols. Paris: B. Duprat. 1840. 8vo. 5521

Quérard merely mentions a "Note sur la condition des esclaves au Mexique avant l'invasion des Espagnols. — Impr. dans le Journal de la morale chétienne, t. xx [1841]." The title above, taken from a bookseller's catalogue, perhaps belongs to the same work, which may never have been separately published. It is not mentioned in the "Bibliog. de la France," 1840–41. The "Uber die Anlegung," by this author, has the word America in the title, but there is nothing in the work to justify its insertion here.

BIOT (Jean Baptiste). Mélanges scientifiques et littéraires par J.-B. Biot ... . Paris: Michel Lévy freres. 1858. 3 tom., 8vo. H.

"Franklin," III. 57–91; a notice of Irving's "Astoria," III. 333–386; and of Wilkes' expedition, III. 387–461.

BISHOPE (G.) New England Judged, | Not by Man's, but the Spirit of the Lord: And | The Summe sealed up of New England's | Persecutions. | Being | A Brief Relation of the Sufferings of the People called Quakers in | those Parts of America, from the beginning of the Fifth | Moneth 1656. (the time of their first Arrival at Boston from | England) to the later End of the Tenth Moneth, 1660. | Wherein | The Cruel Whippings and Scourgings, Bonds and Imprisonments, Beat- | ings and Chainings, Starvings and Huntings, Fines and Confiscati- | on of Estates, Burning in the Hand and Cutting of Ears, Orders of Sale | for Bond-men, and Bond-Women, Banishment upon pain of | Death, and Putting to Death of those People, are Shortly touched; | With a Relation of the Manner, and Some of the Other most Ma | terial Proceedings; and a Judgement thereupon | In Answer | To a Certain Printed Paper, intituled, A Declaration | of the General Court of the Massachusetts holden at Boston, the | 18 October, 1658. Apologizing for the same. | By George Bishope. | ... [Motto.] | London: Printed for Robert Wilson, in Martins le Grand. 1661. | Sm. 4to, pp. 147. 5628

There is an error in the pagination, at pp. 97–104.

BISHOPE. An | Appendex | to the Book, Entituled, | New England Judged: | being | Certain Writings, (never yet Printed) | of those Persons which were there | Executed. | Together | with a short Relation, of the Tryal, | Sentence, and Execution, | of William Leddra. | Written by them in the time of their Imprisonment, in the | Bloody Town of Boston. | London, | Printed for Robert Wilson, at the sign of the Black-spread- | Eagle and Windmil, in Martins Le Grand. | 1661. | 4to, pp. 177–208. 5629

Pages 191–198 should read 199–208.

BISHOPE. New England | Judged. | The Second Part. | Being, | A Relation of the cruel and Bloody Sufferings of the People | called | Quakers, in the Jurisdiction chiefly of the Massa- | chusets; Beginning with the Sufferings of William Ledra, | whom they murthered, and hung upon a Tree at Boston, the | 14th of the first month, 166⅔. barely for being such a one as | is called a Quaker, and coming within their Jurisdiction; | And ending with the Sufferings of Edward Wharton, the 3d | month, 1665. And

the remarkable Judgements of God | in the Death of John Endicot Governour, John Norton, | High Priest, and Humphrey Adderton, Major General. | By George Bishope. | [Motto.] London, Printed in the Year, 1667. | 4to, pp. 147, Errata, 9 lines. 5630

These three works should go together to form a complete book, and, when complete, they constitute a volume of great rarity. The following is an abbreviation:

BISHOPE. New-England Judged, | by the | Spirit of the Lord. | In Two Parts. | First, Containing a Brief Relation of the Sufferings | of the People call'd Quakers in New-England, from the | Time of their first Arrival there, in the Year 1656, to | the Year 1660. Wherein their Merciless Whippings, | Chainings, Finings, Imprisonings, Starvings, Burning in | the Hand, Cutting off Ears, and Putting to Death, with | divers other Cruelties, inflicted upon the Bodies of In- | nocent Men and Women, only for Conscience-sake, are | briefly described. In Answer to the Declaration of their | Persecutors Apologizing for the same, MDCLIX. | Second Part, Being a farther Relation of the Cruel and | Bloody Sufferings of the People call'd Quakers in New- | England, Continued from anno 1660, to anno 1665. Be- | ginning with the Sufferings of William Leddra, whom | they put to Death. | Formerly Published by George Bishop, and now | somewhat Abreviated. | With an Appendix, | Containing the Writings of several of the Sufferers; | with some Notes, shewing the Accomplishment of their Pro- | phecies; and a Postscript of the Judgments of God, that | have befallen divers of their Persecutors. | Also, | An Anfwer to Cotton Mather's Abuses of the said People, | in his late History of New-England, Printed anno 1702. | The whole being at this time Published in the said Peoples | Vindication, as a Reply to all his Slanderous Calumnies. | ... | ... Rev. 12. 11. | London, Printed and Sold by T. Sowle, in White- | Hart-Court in Gracious Street, 1703. 8vo, Title, pp. (6), 498, 212, Index and Errata, 6 l. C. & H. 5631

The following work forms the latter part, pp. 212; it is sometimes found separately: Truth and Innocency | Defended; | against | Falshood and Envy: | And the Martyrs of Jesus, and | Sufferers for his sake, | Vindicated. | In Answer to Cotton Mather (a Priest of | Boston) his Calumnies, Lyes and Abuses | of the People called Quakers, in his late | Church-History of New-England. | With Remarks and Observations on several Pas- | sages in the same, and his Confessions to the | Just Judgments of God on them. | By John Whiting. | [Motto, 8 lines.] | London: Printed and Sold by T. Sowle ... | ... 1702. | The address "To the Unprejudiced Reader" is signed by Joseph Grove. For an extended list of Bishope's writings, see Smith's "Catalogue of Friends' Books," I. 277–283. Perhaps his "Epistle of Love," London, 1661, relates to America.

BLAEU or BLAAW (Johan). Atlas Maior, sive Cosmographia Blaviana, qua Solvm, Salvm, Cœlvm, accvratissime describvntur. [Amstelædami. 1662.] 11 vols., folio. 5714

This is a general half-title, each volume has a special title; that of Vol. XI. is: America, qvæ est Geographiæ Blavianæ Pars Qvinta; Liber Vnvs. Volvmen Vndecimvm. Amstelædami: Labore & Sumptibus Ioannis Blaev. MDCLXII. Folio, Title, pp. 287, (2). Engraving and 27 Maps. H. Vol. I. includes the Arctic Regions. For a detailed account of Blaeu's atlases, see Clément, "Bibl. curieuse," IV. 267–276. J. Jansson and J. Blaeu, who have been confounded by some writers, were rival publishers of atlases at Amsterdam. The chronology of these atlases, according to M. Duve, is briefly this: Willem Bleau, who died in 1638, following Gerardus Mercator and Jodocus and Cornelis Hondius, published not long before his death an atlas in 2 vols., to which the brothers Johan and Cornelis Blaeu added a IIID. vol. in 1640 (changing the date of I. and II. to 1640), a IVth in 1646, a Vth in 1654, and a VIth in 1656. The Atlas Major followed in 1662, and was reprinted in 1665.

BLAEU. Le Grand Atlas, ou Cosmographie Blauiane, en laquelle est exactement descritte la Terre, la Mer et le Ciel.

[Amsterdam: J. Blaeu. MDCLXIII.] 12 vols., folio. + [Ibid.] 1667. [Ibid.] 5715

This should be accompanied by "L'Atlas du mer, ou monde aquatique, représentant toutes les côtes de mer connues en l'univers. Amst. 1667. Folio." Vol. XII. contains "L'Amérique."

BLAEU. Grooten Atlas oft Wereltbeschrijving in welcke 't aerdryck, de zee en hemel wort vertoont en beschreven. Amsterdam. 1664. 9 vols., folio. 5716

There are 24 maps of parts of America

BLAEU. Atlas Universal y Cosmographico de los Orbes Celestes y Terrestre ... . Amsterdam. 1659–72. 11 vols., folio.

Clément gives this title as follows: Atlas Mayor, Geographia Blaviana, que contiene las Cartas, y Descripciones de todas las partes del mondo. Amsterdam: Juan Blaeu. 1659–72. Grässe gives the title in a third form, and mentions only ten volumes, which is the number in the printed catalogue of the British Museum. "L'édition espagnole, Amsterd. 1659–72, 10 vol. a été en grande partie détruite dans l'incendie qui réduisit en cendres les magasins de Blaeu, en février 1672." — BRUNET. This large Atlas, though common formerly, is now becoming scarce. The maps are all on a very large and comprehensive scale, and are taken from early and authentic surveys. The volume relating to America contains a complete digest of the early travels of the Spaniards and English. The map of Bermuda is very curious, giving the names of the English shareholders, amongst whom the native tribes were divided. Priced, in English catalogues, from £7 to £10.

BLAEU (Willem Jansz.) Atlas Magnus sive Geographia et Cosmographia Blaviana, qua solum, salum, coelum accuratissime describuntur. Amst. 1650. 11 vols., folio. With 563 Maps. 5718

"Cette première édition du célèbre atlas de Blaeu est moins recherchée que la suivante en français ["Le Grand Atlas"], quoiqu'elle renferme nombre de pièces qui y manquent." — Grässe.

"An exceedingly rare pamphlet. Mr. Rich, I. 23, from his description, had evidently never seen it, although he may be right as to the author's name. It is a very interesting narration, with a coarse woodcut plan of Caledonia Harbor on page 9. The author says, 'what passages he did not see himself, these he relates as he had them delivered by credible persons, who were eye-witnesses of them when they occurred; and the author being the only person of all the ministers who were sent abroad upon the service of Caledonia, that lived to return to his native country. Another surviving minister, was the Rev. Archibald Stobo, who settled at Charles Town in Carolina.'" — J. R. SMITH. Sold, 1863, $2.15. Reprinted as a "History of Darien," [&c.] Glasgow. 1779.

Massacre. A fair Account of the late Unhappy Disturbance At Boston in New England; extracted From the Depositions that have been made concerning it by Persons of all Parties. With an Appendix, containing Some Affidavits and other Evidences relating to this Affair, not mentioned in the Narrative of it that has been published at Boston. London: B. White. M DCC LXX. 8vo, pp. 28, Appendix, 31. H. 6735

"A defence of the massacre at Boston. The author is a zealous advocate for the soldiers, and endeavors to prove that their firing upon their assailants was, if not wholly unavoidable, at least highly excusable; that they were provoked to it by the most unsufferable insults, and that the people were entirely the aggressors. He supports his representations by the affidavits of twenty-nine persons; most of whom, however, it will be observed, are officers in the army."—M. R., XLIII. 68.

Letters from the Town of Boston to C. Lucas, Esq., inclosing a Narrative of the Massacre perpetrated there March 5, 1770, by the Soldiers of the 29th Regiment, &c. Dublin, Reprinted. [1770.] 6736

Title from one of Puttick and Simpson's catalogues, about 1860.

Orations delivered at the Request of the Inhabitants of the Town of Boston, to commemorate the Evening of the Fifth of March, 1770; When a Number of Citizens were killed by a Party of British Troops, quartered among them, in a Time of Peace. Boston: Printed by Peter Edes, in State-Street. [1785?] 16mo, pp. 200, (Errata) 1 slip. H. + Second Edition. Boston.: Wm. T. Clap. 1807. 12mo, pp. 198, (Index) 1 l. C.

The orations are by James Lovell, A.M., Dr. Benj. Church, Dr. Joseph Warren (of Bunker Hill fame), Benj. Hichborn, William Tudor, Jonathan Mason, Jr., Thos. Dawes, Jr., and John Hancock. Also an oration by Perez Morton, on the reinterment of the remains of Joseph Warren, April 8th, 1776.

The Poem which the Committee of the Town of Boston had voted unanimously to be Published with the late Oration; with Observations relating thereto; Together with some very pertinent Extracts from an ingenious Composition never yet published. Boston: E. Russell. M, DCC, LXXII. 4to, pp. 30. P. + Boston. 1785. 12mo. 6738

An ironical piece, which completely imposed on the committee, who unanimously voted to print it with Warren's Oration on 5th March, and Mr. Samuel Adams carried it to the printer; but, it leaking out that the author was a warm Tory, the committee reconsidered the matter, and discovered the jest. The author was James Allen, concerning whom see Duyckinck, I. 235. See also Vol. I., No. 833, in this Dictionary.

Additional Observations to A Short Narrative of the Horrid Massacre in Boston, perpetrated In the Evening of the 5th of March 1770. Printed by Order of the Town of Boston. M DCC LXX. 8vo, pp. 12. 6741

Forms a supplement to the Short Narrative. See the following note: "The copies of this narrative sent to England and other parts, conclude with the foregoing page. Since they were sent, it has appeared necessary to add a few pages to the remaining copies: to do which an opportunity has been given by the restraint laid on the publishing of the said narrative here. The reason of that restraint will appear by the following vote of the town, passed at the town-meeting held on the 26th of March, namely: 'The committee appointed to prepare a true state of facts relating to the execrable massacre perpetrated on the evening of the 5th instant, in order that the same be transmitted to Great Britain, having accordingly reported, and the report being accepted by the town, and ordered to be printed: And whereas the publishing of the said narrative with the depositions accompanying it, in this country, may be supposed by the unhappy persons now in custody for trial, as tending to give an undue bias to the minds of the jury who are to try the same. Therefore voted, That the committee reserve all printed copies in their hands excepting those to be sent to Great Britain, till the further order of the town.'"

Con Licencia. En Madrid: En la Imprenta de Juan de Zuñiga. Año M. D. CC. XLVI. 4to, engraved

"The curious and learned author of this work arrived in Mexico in 1750; and, desirous of writing the history of that kingdom, he made, during eight years he remained there, the most diligent researches into its antiquity; acquired a considerable mastery of the Mexican language, entered into friendship with the Indians to obtain their ancient pictures from them, and procured copies of many valuable manuscripts which were in the libraries of the monasteries." — CLAVIGERO. And see Bartolache's "Manifiesto," pp. 42, 43, Prescott's "Mexico," Bustamente (C. M.), etc. The appendix to this work is of the highest bibliographical interest. It contains a catalogue of a rich collection of books, MSS., and maps, relating to the early history of Mexico, which Boturini made during his travels in the middle of the last century, and which, unfortunately, is now lost. In consequence of a legal process, in which Boturini was cast, the whole of his museum was confiscated by the Viceroy of Mexico (1743), and has been given up, since that period, to the destroying hand of time. It was first deposited in the Office of the Secretary Viceroy, where it sustained heavy damages by the neglect of its keepers. What remained was transferred, at a later period, to the library of the university, and reduced there, by the same unfortunate circumstances, almost to nothing. The last remains of the collection were kept, in 1853, in the Museo Nacional of Mexico. See Icazbalzeta's "Notice on the Life and Writings of Boturini" in the "Diccionario universal de historia y de geografia," Vol. I., pp. 666. Mexico. 1853. The History of a Voyage to the Malouine (or Falkland) Islands, Made in 1763 and 1764, Under the Command of M. de Bougainville, in order to form a Settlement there; and of Two Voyages to the Streights of Magellan, with an Account of the Patagonians: Translated from Dom Pernety's Historical Journal written in French. Illustrated with Copper Plates. London: T. Jefferys. MDCCLXXI. 4to, 2 l., pp. xvii, 294. + London. 1773. 4to. 6870

First printed at Berlin, in French, in 1763. The translator has omitted the detail of ordinary occurrences which are common to every voyage, retaining whatever seemed, in any view, peculiar to this expedition. Several charts and plans are also added, which are not in the original. The copies with the date 1773 are probably the same, with a new title-page. See M. [BOURGEOIS.] Voyages interessans dans differentes colonies françaises, espagnoles, anglaises, &c.; contenant des observations importantes relatives à ces contrées; et un memoire sur les maladies les plus communes à Saint Domingue, leurs remèdes et le moyen de s'en preserver moralement et phisiquement. Avec des anecdotes singulières, qui n'avaient jamais été publiées. Le tout rédigé et mis au jour, d'après un grand nombre de manuscrits, par M. N. ... . A Londres et Paris: Bastian. 8vo, pp. vii, 507. 6897

With a different title, this forms Vol. x. of Bérenger's "Collection abrégé des voyages." It is taken from the papers of M. B * * * (Bourgeois), "secretary of the chamber of Agriculture of the Cape," by his nephew M. N. (Nougaret). Richardiere says that "the most interesting part of the work is that which relates to the islands of Portorico, Curassoa, Grenada, and the Bermudas, and to New Mexico: about which places it would be difficult to find such interesting and satisfactory details in any other work." It bears sufficient evidence, in typographical execution, of having been printed in France. The "Monthly Review," LXXX. 1789, says "the work is ill written. We should suspect Monsr. N. not to be a native of France. His remarkable anecdotes are neither amusing nor instructive. Compared with the pompous title, this work is one illustration, among many, of the parturient montes." See also Boucher.

"Readers may get some idea of the difficulties which attend the compilation of such a work as the present by comparing the title above with the form in which I first found it, in one of the catalogues published by Charles B. Norton, New York, 1858, from which it has been restored by conjectural emendation. 'Anfichter von Louisiana nebt einen Jozebudre einer, inr Zahre, 1811, den Missouri. Flup answurts gemadote Reize. Von H. M. Brackeridge. Weimar. 1818. 8vo.' The words 'Aus dem Englischen' and 'Ind.-Compt.' are taken from another source, which, however, gave only the first three words of the title. It is but fair to add that this is an unusually bad case."—C. A. C.

[BRACKENRIDGE (Hugh Henry).] The Battle of Bunkers Hill. A Dramatic Piece of Five Acts, in Heroic Measure. By a Gentleman of Maryland. Philadelphia: Printed and Sold by Robert Bell. MDCCLXXVI. 8vo, 2 l., pp. 49. Plate. H., N. 7184

The frontispiece prefixed to this book, "The Death of Warren," engraved by Norman, is said to be the earliest known specimen of engraving in Brirish America by a native artist. The drama appears to have been actually represented on the stage. I have seen it attributed to John Burk, who wrote a piece with a somewhat similar title. See Burk (John). Sold at Puttick's, 1860, for £1 15s.

[BRACKENRIDGE.] The Death of General Montgomery, at the Siege of Quebec. A Tragedy. With an Ode, in honour of the Pennsylvania Militia, and the small band of regular Continental Troops, who sustained the Campaign, in the depth of Winter, January, 1777, and repulsed the British Forces from the Banks of the Delaware. By the Author of a Dramatic Piece on the Battle of Bunker's-Hill. To which are added, Elegiac Pieces, Commemorative of distinguished Characters. [Motto.] Philadelphia: Robert Bell. M,DCC,LXXVII. 8vo, pp. 79, (5). H. 7185

BRACKENRIDGE. Incidents of the Insurrection in the Western Parts of Pennsylvania, In the Year 1794. By Hugh H. Brackenridge. Philadelphia: John McCulloch. 1795. 8vo, Title, 1 l., pp. 5–124; [Vol. II.], pp. 84; [Vol. III.], pp. 154.

A scarce book, in defence of the author and the subject. "It was at first intended to publish this work in three vols., with an appendix to each vol., &c. ... But this plan was relinquished, and it was judged best to publish the whole in one vol." (pp. 154.) This accounts for the three paginations; that the second and third begin with page 5 is, perhaps, owing to title-pages, etc., being dropped. See Brackenridge (H. M.), No. 7166 supra.

[BRACKENRIDGE.] A Poem on Divine Revelation; being an Exercise delivered at the Public Commencement at Nassau-Hall, September 28, 1774. By the same person who ... September 25, 1771, delivered a small Poem on the Rising Glory of America. Philadelphia: R. Aitken. 1774. 8vo, 2 l., pp. 22. S. 7190

The poem on the "Rising glory of America," was the joint production of Freneau and Brackenridge. See Freneau (P.)

BRADFORD (Wm). See Budd (Thomas) and Keith (George).

The catalogue of the American Antiquarian Society quotes an "Account of his Trial at Philadelphia," as by Bradford. It is more probably by George Keith, under whose name we give the title correctly. The following notice is from Joseph

Smith's Catalogue of Friends' books, and is here introduced on account of the interest attached to his name: "William Bradford was born in Leicester, about the year 1659. He was placed as an apprentice to learn the printing business with Andrew Sowle in London. Whilst in this situation, he appears to have been convinced of Friends' principles, and was admitted into membership among them. Shortly after he was of age he married Elizabeth Sowle, a daughter of his late master, and then went over to America. This was in 1682 or 1683. A Certificate of Devonshire House Monthly Meeting, recommending William Bradford and Elizabeth his wife, as members of the Society of Friends, was read in Philadelphia Monthly Meeting, held the 4th of the 11th month, 1685, and accepted. They were not, however, settled in Philadelphia, but in Oxford township; and belonged to Oxford Monthly Meeting. His press was probably at Burlington, or at Chester, or at Kensington. Having received his printing materials from England, William Bradford was now ready to carry on business. The first work that he printed appears to have been 'An Epistle of John Burnyeat's, in 1686.' In the year 1687, he issued a prospectus for publishing by subscription a folio Bible with notes, but not receiving sufficient encouragement, the work was relinquished. In the year 1691, he joined with George Keith in his controversy with the Society, and in 1692 wished to be discharged from the engagement as Friends' printer. He removed to New York with his press in 1693, and was appointed printer to the government. There he continued to reside until 5th month 23rd, 1752, when he suddenly deceased, aged 94 years." He signed many books and papers during the Keithian controversy. It is scarcely necessary to add, that Bradford being the first printer in the Middle Colonies, books printed by him are eagerly sought for by the American collector; many of them are printed without a separate title-page, but their completeness is ascertained by the paging and signatures. For a list of books printed by Bradford, see the index to this work, and J. W. Wallace's "Address."

One of "The Club" having sold his books, the remaining five formed the "Bradford Club," whose publications will be described under the headings to which we have referred. The publications are limited to 75 "Club" copies, and 75 subscriber's copies. The verso of each title-page conveys the idea that 75 only are printed. Of the "Papers relating to Hatfield and Deerfield," only 100 copies in all were printed.

"The conclusion, showing the present state of the Protestant religion in Maryland," etc. — pp. 125–130. The author states that the object of this bibliographical treatise was to give those who went to Virginia, Maryland, and the American plantations, an idea of the books they should take. He speaks of having assisted in first founding a parochial library in Maryland. At the end are proposals "to induce persons of sobriety and abilitie to accept of a mission" to the plantations; and regulations that books sent to the Maryland libraries shall have on the cover, "ex gr. E Bibliotheca de Mary-Town; — de James-Town," etc. The work was not completed; but in the second edition the title-page reads: "Bibliotheca Parochialis, &c.; or, a Scheme of such theological and other heads, as seem requisite to be perused or occasionally consulted by the Reverend Clergy: Together with the Books which may be profitably read on each of those points, in order to promote the forming and erecting Libraries of three degrees, viz. B., C. 8019

"A spirited writer here attacks the Marquis for having, in the publication of his travels, exposed to ridicule, and grossly misrepresented the principles and manners of the Quakers; he also endeavors to show that the Marquis's reflections on the slavery of the negroes, and his thoughts on the condition of mankind, with respect to the ranks in society, are often unjust. M. de Warville's language is forcible, his arguments are striking, if not always conclusive, and his work is replete with liberal sentiments on religious and political subjects." — M. R., LXXVI. 337.

P. Brissot de Warville. Second Edition, corrected. London: J. S. Jordan. M DCC XCIV. 8vo, pp. xii, 416; [Vol. II.], 1 l., lxiv, 348. C., H. 8027

The author came to the United States just before the French Revolution, for the purpose of selecting a suitable place for establishing a colony of respectable persons, who had determined to abandon the then despotic government of France, and seek an asylum under the mild and equal government of the United States. M. Brissot was commissioned to collect every necessary information, prior to the execution of so important a plan. These volumes contain the result of his assiduous labors, and minute enquiries, and sufficiently manifest that he was qualified to accomplish such an arduous undertaking. The second volume is a new edition of Brissot and Clavière's "De la France, et des États-Unis," etc., printed at Paris in 1787, and in English in 1788. See No. 8016.

BRITO (F. T. de). Itinerario geographico, com a verdadeira descripçao dos caminhos, estrados, roças, sitios, povoaçoes, logares, villas, rios montes e serras, que ha da cidade de S. Sebastiao do Rio de Janeiro até ás Minas do ouro por Francisco Tavares de Brito. Sevilha: Offic. de Antonio da Silva. 1732. 8vo, pp. 26 or 76. 8129

A volume of great rarity. See Silva's Dic. bib. port., III. 72.

BRITO FREIRE. Nova | Lusitania, | historia da | guerra | Brasilica | a | purissima alma | e | savdosa memoria | do serenissimo principe | Dom Theodosio | principe de Portvgal, | e | principe do Brasil. | Por | Francisco de Brito Freyre. | Decada primeira. | Lisboa | na officina de Joam Galram. | Anno 1675. | Folio, engraved and printed title, 7 l., pp. 460. BT. 8130

Meusel, Vol. III., pt. 2, p. 58, seems to be puzzled by the name Freyre, but in the work itself (p. 105), mention is made of an Estevan de Brito Freyre, and of a Joano Machado de Brito, Senhor das Villas de Sanseris and Frieiras. This important work should be consulted for the history of the war between the Portuguese and Dutch. Ternaux, No. 917, remarks: "Ce volume très-rare et qu'Antonio n'avait jamais vu: car il dit en le citant, 'Olyssepone circiter annum 1667 prodiisse dicitur,' ne contient que la première décade; le premier livre rapporte l'histoire de la découverte du Brésil et des premiers établissemens qu'on y fonda; les neuf autres sont consacrés à l'histoire de la guerre contre les Hollandais de 1623 à 1638. Brito joua lui-même un rôle distingué dans cette guerre, car il commanda la flotte en 1655 et 1656." See Silva's Dic. Bibl., II. 361, where it is quoted at 3600 to 4000 reis. The following work is usually bound up with it:

BRITO FREIRE. Viage | da armada | Da companhia do | commercio, e frotas | do estado do Brasil. | A cargo do General | Francisco de Brito Freyre. | Impressa | por mandado de | el rey | nosso | senhor. | Anno 1655. | Folio, Title, 3 l., pp. 64, 20 l. BT. 8131

From the "Decreto," dated 1657, it is evidently printed at Lisbon. No mention is made of this work by Netscher in his "Hollandais du Brésil."
